Mobile Career Center Attends Homeless Vets Stand Down Event

MOBILE – Staff members from the Mobile Career Center, along with the Alabama Career Center System’s mobile Career unit, will be present during a homeless veterans stand down scheduled at Battleship Park on Thursday, Sept. 24 from 8:30 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Numerous resources and services will be available to attendees including financial planning, career services, legal services/legal aide, pet supplies, and haircuts. The event is being organized by the Gulf Coast Veterans Advocacy Council (GCVAC), a non-profit organization, and hosted by the Battleship Commission. Wind Creek Casino, the event’s main sponsor, will be providing free lunches to the homeless and selling lunch platters to the public with the proceeds benefitting the GCVAC. More than 60 service providers and businesses will be at the event.

For more information about the Mobile Career Center and the services it offers to both employers and jobseekers, visit joblink.alabama.gov or call (251) 461-4146.
